Black Laundry - Transgenders, Lesbians, Gays, Bisexuals and Others Against The Occupation and for Social Justice

Black Laundry – Lesbians and gay men in solidarity with Israeli Palestinians.

Black Laundry is a group of Lesbians and gay men who object to the Israeli occupation of the territories, and to discrimination against any minority groups.

As a minority in the state of Israel, which does not receive equal treatment from society, and in the eye of the law, we support the political struggle of Palestinians, who are citizens of the state of Israel, for equality, and the struggle of Palestinians in the occupied territories for national liberation.

Land seizures, non-recognition of villages, discrimination in budget allocation, erasing of nationality, police violence and murder of civilians, bureaucratic harassment, limits on residence, an unbalanced division of resources, media silence, all these are a part of the way the Jewish majority in Israel represses the Palestinian citizens and marginalizes them.

These days, when racist and nationalistic winds blow, and threaten us all, we call for a common struggle in which we stand side by side. Together we will fight the forces that wish to silence our voices – the forces of militarism, sexism and racism.

Every minority group in Israel suffers from discrimination and is aware of its results. As lesbians and gay men, we support the right of every person and group to self-determination, recognition, and equality and call for a common struggle by different minorities to end their oppression, and to achieve their rights.

These days, no one must be silent!
